DINNER HONORS W. U. H. S. VARSITY AT HIGH SCHOOL

HUSKERS SUFFER BUT ONE DEFEAT DURING
1940 SEASON OF PLAY

CENTERVILLE — Football boys of Washington Union High School were feted at the annual dinner given by the Girls League in the school cafeteria last Tuesday night with Coach Jud Taylor as master of ceremonies.

Senior members of the squad who were honor guests were Mervin Boyce, Joe Schelbert, Mervin Marshal, Don Furtado, Rowan Henry, Jack Pool, Bob Vieux, James Stanhope, Richard Laudenschlager, Melvin Garcia and Walter George. Approximately 60 were present.

At the speakers' table were Margaret Schelbert, president of the Girls' League; Julian Yyons, P. E. instructor; Principal A. J. Rathbone, Mervin Telles, Student Body president; M. J. Overacker, president of the board of trustees; H. M. Kibby who was coach in 1920; Clyde Voorhees, assistant coach and other members of the faculty and the board of trustees.

A program was presented under the direction of Cleone West as follows: Marjorie Hunt, tap dance; Joy Brown, vocal solo; Elaine Justus and Ruth Justus, accordion and piano; Margaret Kerns and Yvonne Soares, vocal duet; Josephine Cordoba, Spanish dance, accompanied by Miss Helena Stockholm.

Mr. Overacker told of early football days at the high school in 1895 and Mrs. Kibby who was coach of Larry Bettencourt, All American, mentioned some of the "old guard" including Kelly Mickels, Erle Hygelund, Bill Logan, Walter Norris, Joe Blacow and others. Football history of the high school also includes the name of the late James R. Whipple, captain of the University of California varsity, Mr. Overacker pointed out.

Brief talks were made by the Senior team members, all of whom lauded the coach and his staff and expressed regret at having to turn in their suits for the last time. The coach in turn praised the boys who with a practically "green" team came out of the season with only one defeat.

NEW MODEL HOME TO BE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC SOON

"OLD ADOBE ACRES" OFFERS
ATTRACTIVE BUILDING
SITES, WITH MANY SERVICES

Announcement is made by George C. Roeding Jr., president of the California Nursery Company, owners and developers of Southern Alameda County's most distinctive restricted home center, "Old Adobe Village", of the forthcoming opening to public inspection of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Crane, located on the Niles-Decoto Highway at the western boundary of the tract. The Crane residence will be completed within the next week, and will remain open to visitors on weekends only for the next month. Every family expecting to buy or build a home in the Niles district is invited to see it, as a visual demonstration of the great amount of "livability" and style now available at modest cost and on easy rent-size terms at Old Adobe Village under today's conditions of low prices and attractive F. H. A. financing terms.

The Crane home is located in the section of the tract subdivided into quarter acre homesites. Together with the Rotary Club Model Home, now rapidly approaching final stages of construction and located on one of Old Adobe Village's half acre orchard sites, tract visitors will find both homes a source of helpful ideas in planning new residences of their own.

—Visitors Invited
Sales activity continues, and prospective buyers are urged to inspect the attractive homesites remaining while the choice of locations is still complete. Orland Close, contractor, has just completed surfacing the wide tree shaded avenues. Street work, as well as all the essential utilities of gas, electricity, water and telephone are included in the price of each site. Buyers receive two other unusual advantages, not matched elsewhere. First is the presence of a well selected group of California's finest fruit trees, constituting a "family orchard" which will supply a variety of luscious tree-ripened fruits throughout a long season each year, as well as summer shade and lovely colorful blossoms in spring.

Second is the service of the California Nursery Company's building department, ready to assist with experienced counsel on home design and interior decorative treatment, as well as with plans for the creation of an adequate and suitable garden, to insure buyers the utmost utility and enjoyment from their investment both indoors and out. Because of the favorable climate which "Old Adobe Village" enjoys, the construction of an "outdoor living room" yields rich dividends in many happy hours spent in the garden. Tract owners have been quick to take advantage of the Nursery's wide experience in this field, which includes hundreds of home landscape developments ranging in size from modest projects to some of California's largest estates.

—Representative On Duty
For the convenience of local people, arrangements have been made to have the tract representative on hand daily at the tract office, located on the Niles-Decoto Highway one-quarter mile west of the Nursery grounds. If desired, an authorized representative will call at your home.

GEORGE COTTON'S FUNERAL SERVICES HELD ON SATURDAY

NEWARK — George Cotton, father of Arthur Cotton, president of the Newark Boosters Club, died at the home of his son the day before Thanksgiving at the age of 85 years. He was active as assistant in his son's real estate office here until the day of his last illness, which began a week before his death.

He is survived also by two other sons, Dwight and Gordon of Oakland and seven grandchildren. He was a native of England and came to this country when five years of age. He came to California 21 years ago and engaged in the real estate and insurance business in Oakland, coming to Newark about a year ago.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Truman's mortuary on Telegraph Avenue, in Oakland. Interment was made at Mt. View cemetery under the direction of Rev. Joyce Farr, pastor of St. Andrews Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member.

KRAFT PROPOSES LANDING FIELD FOR CIVIL USE

C. W. "Chuck" Kraft, president of the Kraftite company, suggested to the Monday noon meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce that steps be taken to provide a suitable landing field near Niles for owners of private planes and for the use of civilian fliers.

Military demands are making present airports unavailable for civilian use, he said. Chairman George Bonde appointed E. A. Ellsworth to locate a suitable site and report at the next meeting following which the secretary will endeavor to interest the Civil Aeronautics Authority in establishing such a field.

A suggestion that an effort be made to have one name applied to each of the many roads throughout this township, with each intersection suitably signed, was not acted upon.

Although the avenue construction and the many landscape features of avenue trees, screen and boundary plantings of stately conifers, and the home orchard plantings represent a substantial additional investment on the part of the owners, homesite prices remain at the same attractive levels of $350 for quarter acre plots and $600 for half acre sites. "Old Adobe" Village is an approved home center for Federal Housing Administration home loans.

NEWARK GUNNERS EARN TURKEYS AT SUNDAY SHOOT

NEWARK — The Newark Sportsmen's Club Turkey Trap Shoot was quite successful Sunday at their gun field, one mile west of Newark, despite the cold weather and a miserable day. Jack Kuegeman, chairman of the day, and Chris Mikkelsen, president of the club were in charge of arrangements.

Twenty five turkeys were awarded to the winners in the small bore target shooting, shot gun circle shooting, 100 foot rifle range five man trap shoot, and 25 man trap shoot events. Frank Truttlman was the luckiest man winning three turkeys, while Joe Deck had a perfect score in the 100 foot range and won a turkey. A delegation of the Swiss Alpine Club, Sportsmen members, and outside shooters all helped make this affair successful, and the two men in charge would like to thank those groups.

The Newark club must be given a lot of credit for the way they have beautified their gun field.

Scores of the affair were as follows: Small bore rifle target shooting: First round, George May Jr., 28 out of 40; Second and 3rd round, Prino, 27 out of 40. Shot gun circle shooting: M. D. Silva, Stanley Majeski, Joe Milani, Mrs. R. A. Jolly, and E. J. Keener. 100 foot rifle range: Frank Truttlman, 39, 39, and 38 out of 40; Joe Deck, 40 out of 40; and L. Schmidly, 38 out of 40. Five man team trap shoot: Bill Calderia, 17 out of 18; E. J. Keener, 4 out of 5; and Johnson, 4 out of 5. 25 man team trap shoot: E. J. Keener 22 out of 25. The club will hold another turkey shoot in the near future date to be announced later.

DR. WILSON'S NEW HOME EMBODIES LOCAL PRODUCTS

BAY BUILDERS INTERESTED IN UNIQUE TYPE OF ALL
TILE CONSTRUCTION

Because of its unusually interesting construction features, the new residence of Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Wilson, now building on Mission Highway, is attracting to Niles many individuals of importance in the construction world.

Architects and builders from San Francisco and Oakland are watching the structure which is representative of the clay products industry of Niles.

Materials used in the residence of Dr. Wilson are made locally—the roof, walls and floors, drain tile and sewer pipe — were all made by M & S Tile Company, Kraftite Company and California Pottery Company.

Dr. Wilson, originator of the "Rotary Demonstration House" idea has given the community its first opportunity to see the latest thing in small home construction.

Other Rotarians and local business men participating in the project are E. E. Dias, general contractor, P. C. Hansen Lumber Company, Vieux Brothers, electric wiring, E. H. Frick Plumbing Company and Jose Torres, painting.

L. L. Johsens, the masonry contractor placing the steel reinforced walls, hails from Oakland.

Features of this house in addition to its being earthquake-proof are its fire-proof and termite-proof qualities, low painting and decorating and heating costs and speed of construction, which will be about half that of ordinary frame construction.

HUNTER DISCOVERS MUMMIFIED MAN HANGING FROM TREE

BODY BELIEVED THAT OF
DISGRUNTLED SOLDIER
WHO TOOK HIS OWN LIFE

(Special to the Register)

A gruesome find was the trophy of the hunt for George LaVier of 1007 45th street, Oakland when he discovered the partly-mummified body of a man hanging high up in an oak tree on the Ed Vargas ranch about a half mile east of the California Pottery Company in Niles Canyon.

A social security card found in the sweater pocket disclosed the dead man to be Joe Cunningham, General Delivery, Oxnard, Calif. An inquest conducted in Hayward on Tuesday gave the verdict of strangulation by his own hand. It is thought the man might have been a soldier or CCC camp enrollee.

Ed Vargas reported that last August he and a party of friends sat under the tree during a deer hunt. He found a coat and hung it on the tree but failed to see the body hanging eight feet off ground. A calendar in the man's coat pocket torn off to the month of May indicated that the suicide must have taken place about that time and the condition of the body bore out this supposition, according to Deputy Coroner Tom Berge who went after the body. The matter was reported by the Oakland hunter to Deputy Sheriff Henry Vervais.

A note left in the pocket of the man's sweater was written on the 1940 cover of the Oakland Tribune Year Book and said "Well, Lt. Cooms and Serg Cook is the cause of this. I try to leave Co and Lt. Cooms and Serg Cook . . . dam lie . . ." Another note written on wrapping paper found in the trousers pocket was illegible.

A needle in the man's hat, three small mirrors, a comb and a toothbrush, indicated the man was a transient. A leather belt around the neck and a limb of the tree kept the body hanging for seven months.

FOUR BAY COUNTIES TO PARTICIPATE IN FOOD STAMP PLAN

SAN FRANCISCO — Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard today announced that the Food Stamp Plan for distributing surplus agricultural commodities will be extended to four new counties in California — Alameda, Contra Costa, San Mateo and Santa Clara.

According to the 1940 census there is a combined population in these four counties of 887,661 and it is estimated that there are about 36,226 relief cases representing approximately 73,827 persons. This should increase local business in this area approximately $135,925 per month through sale of Blue Surplus Food Stamps.

Under the Plan of stamp distribution to be used in the area, eligible families will be given the opportunity to buy orange colored food stamps and receive free blue surplus stamps in the ratio of 50 cents worth for each $1.00 worth of orange stamps purchased.

The orange stamps are used to continue the family's regular food purchases, while the free blue stamps are used to obtain specially designated surplus commodities as additions to the family's food supplies.

Under the Stamp Plan price-depressing farm surpluses are moved through regular trade channels to families on relief. This gives the farmer a wider market for his surplus crops, and at the same time adds needed health-giving foods to the diets of families receiving public aid.

Actual operation of the program in the four-county area is expected to begin in about a month. Participation in the program will be voluntary.

State Deeper "In Red" Notwithstanding Increased Revenues

California's financial outlook has improved slightly in the last four months, but the State still is deeper "in the hole" than it was a year ago, State Controller Harry B. Riley announced today.

Revenue in the first four months of this fiscal year was $4,581,968 greater than the like period last year, and expenditures were $3,187,120 less, but the cash deficiency on October 31 stood at $71,980,989, an increase of $17,847,765 over that of a year ago.

Indications of an upturn in the state's financial conditions are seen not only in increased revenues and decreased expenditures, Controller Riley said, but also in the fact that the cash deficiency on October 31, while greater than that of a year ago, was $10,129,570 less than it was June 30, this year.

Revenue from several sources has been greater in the first four months of this fiscal year than last. The insurance companies tax yielded $2,082,332 more this year than last; while the inheritance tax was $1,195,176 greater; and the bank and corporation tax, $963,863.

A reduction in the relief case load resulted in a $6,278,354 drop in expenditures for unemployment relief.

Expenditures for aid to needy aged increased $637,012; interest on registered warrants, $538,291; aid to needy children, $306,147; high schools, $232,467; and University of California, $227,806.

FORD CARS OFFERS GREATEST VALUE IN MOTORING FIELD

Indications that the 1941 model season will be one of the greatest sales volume years in the recent history of the automobile business is seen in the reports reaching here from the leading motor trade executives who have just returned to Detroit after covering the "auto show circuit" and attending crowded Auto Shows in the leading metropolitan centers throughout the country.

"The California Auto Shows were no exception to the nationwide rule, as both the San Francisco and Los Angeles motor shows played to record crowds this year with dealers reporting that buying showed an increase of from 20 to 25 per cent over the sales for the same period of last year," said Joe Adams, local Ford dealer.

"The big news of the Auto Shows for the motor car shopping public, however, is the fact that comparisons made at the show by impartial trade observers showed that Ford for 1941 offers the greatest value in its long history. Not only is it the biggest Ford ever built but it is the biggest car in comparison with the famous big three in the low price field," continued Adams. "It was proved that Ford, by actual measurement is biggest inside, where bigness counts and therefore offers more knee room, more leg room, more comfort and more convenience to both driver and passengers than former Ford models or competitive 1941 offerings," continued Adams.

All dealers are equipped with a special "measuring stick" which they are inviting the public to view. It is claimed to be the yardstick of value in the 1941 automobile market and is a true gauge for the 1941 motor car shopper.

The new Ford models are being featured in special displays this week at dealer showrooms through out Northern California with the public cordially invited to inspect and compare the 1941 offerings of the Ford Motor Car Company.

Good Coffee Comes From a Clean Pot

YOUR coffee pot may not be as clean as you think, and a clean pot is essential for good coffee. Always use a brush to thoroughly clean inaccessible percolator parts.

Use plenty of hot water to wash your coffee makers. After washing with soapy water, scald it thoroughly to remove all traces of suds and wash as soon as possible after use.

Aluminum coffee makers should be scoured with steel wool and soap once a week. Never use soda, and don't forget that the cleaner your coffee pot—the better is your brew.

PERSONALLY SPEAKING

By: Your Editor.

IDEALS — Walter Winchell worded a classic during his Sunday night broadcast when he epitomized the world conflict in the following words:

"Hitler's first enemy is truth. Democracy's first ally is faith. The basis of morale is morality. The common people own the future."

There's a whole sermon in a nutshell. Winchell sees very clearly the world situation today. Hitler is in the wrong and everything he does and says is wrong. He applies might to produce right, and that is impossible. His reasoning is specious and his methods are atrocious.

His defeat is inevitable, regardless of the cost in blood, treasure and human misery. We will all emerge from the ordeal a better people, cleansed by conflict.

SIGNIFICANT—The first sign of weakness in more than two years of Hitler's violent efforts to nazify Europe appeared Monday when he failed to force Bulgaria to join the six-power axis to permit German troops to pass through that country in order to extricate the Italians by knifing Greece in the back.

This first sign of cracking of the nazi armor is contained in the following short sentence sent from Berlin:

"Authorized sources in Berlin said the fact Bulgaria was not expected to affiliate with the Axis at the present time has nothing to do with developments in Turkey."

Let's look behind the scenes at the actual situation camouflaged by those words, — words which are a tacit confession of weakness and the near approach of exhaustion.

Hitler has half a million troops in Rumania. Why does he not hurl them at once through Bulgaria against Greece and Turkey, and rescue his pal Mussolini?

Because the Greeks, whose civilization is even older than the Roman's, with some little help from England, have successfully hurled back all Italians not only from Greek soil, but are also, and inadvertently, liberating the Albanians, who are carrying on a sniping war against the Italians.

Across the straits stands Turkey with two million men under arms, determined to fight any aggression.

In the background hovers the great Russian bear, ready to swing his paw against anyone who cuts off his outlet to the Mediterranean. Hitler hasn't men and machines enough to face all that, two thousand miles away from Berlin.

The British fleet is still supreme in the Mediterranean. Gibraltar has not been blitzed. There are no enemy soldiers anywhere near the Suez canal.

The Italians sent ten old-style airplanes to help Adolph bomb England and the British shot down nine of them. Slim pickin's for Benito.

In North Africa 600,000 well equipped free French troops await the word to march on the Italian columns in Libya under Graziani, and if they do it will be curtains for the latter. General Weygand, sent by the Vichy government to "do something" in North Africa, thrice ordered to report back to the Petain government, has disappeared.

De Gaulle, head of the free French movement in England, has seen Weygand, and Weygand is still in North Africa; anxious to redeem himself from his failure in France when the Huns invaded.

On the western front England is swapping blow for blow with Germany, and the destruction of German bases, ships, navy yards, airdromes, oil refineries, munitions plants, etc. is just as great as the nazi destruction in England.

Who wants to be in Hitler's boots? He has the peoples of six starving nations to "govern" and feed. He has the offensive war against England to prosecute. He evidently hasn't energy, resources and planning ability enough left to rush into the Balkans and face Greece, Albania, Bulgaria (?) and surely Turkey, with the big bad bear always X-the-Unknown, — in a probably futile effort to save face for his weak partner, Mussolini, in the Balkans.

If he plans a blitz against Gibraltar, against the Balkans or against any area other than the British Isles, he's been a long time doing anything about it.

And don't forget: the daily damage being done by the R. A. F. to industrial centers in the Fatherland is not only hurting Hitler but is definitely undermining the morale of the German people whose faith in their Fuehrer is predicated solely on his successes.

Once he starts to slip — and there are first signs of cracking now — the debacle will be a landslide.

With Germany, Austria, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Norway, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Rumania, most of France, Denmark under his control it is just likely he has territory enough wherein to establish his "new order in Europe" and the persistent hammering of the Fatherland by the R. A. F. is surely going to annoy him. And Hitler can't stand being crossed up.

So, Hitler has two choices for the immediate future: first, he will either undertake a costly and losing blitzkrieg somewhere in the Mediterranean or the Balkans, (which appears increasingly unlikely); or

He will sue for peace, which of course England will not grant. Mussolini has lost face not only before the world but before the Italian people, who had no stomach for this war, anyhow. It Adolph does not do something spectacular and successful very soon he too will lose face.

Japan has long since lost face in China, and when Hitler starts slipping, Japan will become inert and scared to death.

Smart guy Stalin has kept his skirts entirely OUTSIDE the Rome Berlin axis and may help himself to what he wants, when the time comes.

It is still this observer's firm belief that the United States will never have to fulfill in full its gigantic rearmament program. — Something will happen abroad to make it unnecessary, for something favorable always does happen, if we wait and hope long enough.

SASCAPIOUSCIOUS — Being a Willage Editor has its brighter moments. . . . Comes now a letter addressed on the outside to "Mr. W. W. Editor" and a subscriber sending a payment from San Francisco inscribes on the bottom of his bill: "Much better paper since you took over even though you were out for Willkie. Presswork is 90 percent better. Keep it up."

The office cat preens her whiskers and takes a nap in the sun. Hooooo-hum.

CHANCES — The law says motorists must make a left-turn signal 50 FEET before they plan to make it. . . . Any sane motorist attempting a left turn on heavily traveled highways, where modern cars clip along from 50 to 70 miles per hour, who does not put his left arm WAY out at least 500 feet before he reaches the point of turning, is courting sure death.

Which brings up the oft-repeated thought: why don't our legislators spend some time modernizing and perfecting existing laws, rather than always trying to make and pass new laws?

Our statute books are so cluttered up now, even lawyers can't keep up with them.

One Story Colonial Cottage of Unpretentious Charm

FOR a small house the one-story plan has many advantages over its two-story rival. In the first place, the exterior appearance of a five-room house all on one floor is usually better looking than if the dimensions were reduced and a second story added. The climbing of stairs is good for only one thing, and that is to arrive at the top, when necessary. To eliminate the necessity of going up, therefore, cancels all good any stair can possibly be.

This house has two bedrooms with a connecting hall, and a bath room close at hand. The living room and dining room face the garden at the rear. Although not large, the rooms are arranged in an interesting manner and access is easy from place to place. The garage is part of the house and is of ample size for a large car.

For traditional gleaming white or modern color scheme on exterior, the use of pure white lead paint is specified. It is durable and keeps an even surface throughout its long lifetime, assuring a minimum maintenance outlay.

Complete building plans and specifications are available for this house for $1.00. Included with the plans is a cardboard cut-out model of this house, architecturally drawn to scale. The model can be colored, and it will visualize for you exactly what the completed house will look like. Address your request for plans and model to the editor of this paper, or the Ladies' Home Journal, asking for House Pattern #319.

RAYS OF HOPE

There are a few rays of hope in the current week's news of the world situation.

First: the "mighty" Italian invasion of Greece, just four weeks old Sunday, is all but admitted to be a colossal military blunder. To attempt to save face for the Gent with the Photogenic Jaw, it is expected Hitler will do something about it any day now.

It is even suggested he will propose to Coachman Joe that the Soviets stab at Turkey from behind — though it is doubtful if Joe will drive his bus for nazi hire.

Second: two great earthquakes in Rumania ten days apart damaged and set fire to about half the Beserabian oilfields, whence Germany gets most of her gasoline. As earthquakes are not under nazi control just yet, it will appear The Almighty has finally decided to do something to maintain the standard of Right.

Third: the Italians with loud fanfare of Axis collaboration have joined the nazis' air attacks on England. Truth is, Hitler has lost so many planes and so many pilots, he's running short. (As pointed out in these columns some months ago, this is a war of attrition: the slow, dogged wearing down of enemy resources.) England is doing just that.

The incessant R. A. F. bombings of airports, harbors, railways, etc., on the German-controlled mainland; the setting fire to the great Krupps armament plant, the destruction of Munich's railway system, the undermining of German civilian morale by the incessant bombing of Munich the night of Hitler's 17th. "putsch" anniversary party, — which prevented broadcasting of Der Fearer's bombastic remarks even to the German people, all adds up to a considerable credit on the British side of the ledger.

On the debit side appears the greatly-increased submarine warfare which is doing lots of damage to British shipping and supplies.

News note: the main British fleet, for the third month is still endeavoring to locate and come to grips with the vaunted Italian navy. Seems the Italian navy can run and hide much better than it can shoot. Everything Mussolini has started since entering the war last September, has come to naught: notably the much-heralded campaign in North Africa, which has petered out somewhere on the Sahara Desert.

According to a new dictionary just released by the German-American Bund, "democracy" means a "deranged, decadent group which disdains the use of the sword and expects to conquer its enemies with prayer books."

Events may transpire so that one by one the totalitarian ring-leaders will somehow disappear; the dominated (not conquered) peoples may and probably will, rise up and smite their oppressors, regardless of cost and consequence: hunger, after all, is a stern goad.

So that — within a year, or six months, or two years swords can be melted back to plowshares, and the prayer book will survive, quite as usual.

Meanwhile, to keep the public amused, Hitler and Russia met last week to decide — of all things! — how to divide up, not Europe and Asia, but THE WORLD!

If your advertisement were in this space, as many people would read it as are reading this. But your advertisement isn't here, and because it isn't, many people will go elsewhere to get what they might have bought from you!

Editorial Page of the Township Register

They overlook a few trifling details such as putting the British Empire out of business, conquering China, Turkey and all the ready-to-resist Balkan states; brave little Greece . . . and way off on the sidelines, buying South America with cheap goods under the barter system.

Last but not least, ole Uncle Sam, who has never lost a war yet, sitting way off on the sidelines, gold-darned busy whittling out war toys for his nephews to grow up with.

And there's a laugh, reported by a recent columnist: a nazi trade mission sewed up about 45 millions of dollars of orders for industrial goods in South America. Germany can't manufacture these peacetime items just now; and if she did she'd have no way to deliver them.

So the nazi bright boy comes to Uncle Sam and pays 55 millions for the goods to be manufactured here and delivered to S. A. points. We WELCOME nazi business done at a loss . . . and the more of it the nazis do the richer we become and the sooner they go broke.

Which still brings up the question: what is Hitler using for money? He had less than 100 million when he started the war a year ago Septemebr. The pilots shoot off that much fireworks every few days. England now spends 40 million dollars per day, and is she making her shots tell?

I don't think we will have to wait for spring to see the Hitler machine crack. After all, you can't balance a pyramid on its economic and financial apex indefinitely, — and Hitler has not yet learned how to produce or prevent earthquakes, nor how to keep human beings, conquered or otherwise, from getting hungry with desperate and inescapable regularity. Nor has he learned how to wring the soul from until-recently-free human beings.

As Prime Minister Chamberlain put it recently: "It's a great life if we won't weaken." And down-trodden peoples won't yield up their souls to the invaders: that's one thing the military can't conquer.

So there are a few rays of light in what has been, up to the recent present, a very dark picture.

You can't hold four aces all the time when there are 52 cards in the deck, even if you do your own dealing. Hitler has had everything HIS way for about five years. The belief strengthens that Fate will soon take him for a ride — one way.

WHY I AM THANKFUL

By Reverend R. C. Day
(From the Niles Rotary Club's magazine.)

I am thankful to be alive, reasonably sound in body and mind; That I have a job worth while not only to provide bread for daily life, but means by which I can contribute to the happiness and well being of my fellowmen: That I have friends who believe in me and whose loyalty is a constant spur to me to do my best: That I have some enemies whose pressure puts my good will and good humor to test: That I live in a land where a man may say his say and order his course unafraid, guided by a decent respect for the opinions of those about him;

That I can see this human scene in the softer light of a declining sun, and life's shadows lengthening with unabated confidence in the power of faith over doubt, of hope over despair, of courage over fear, of good over evil, and of love over hate: That I have still a keen zest for living, and an eager expectation of good: That in the midst of the ceaseless din and strife, the bewildering changes compelling us to new directions, I can still believe firmly in the basic principles of our democratic way of life, and in their soundness to endure the strain of earthquake, wind and fire in our human world.

That I still believe in "The Power not our own that makes for righteousness", moving in and through our human life with unconquerable purpose for good, and whose inexhaustible resources of spiritual power are available to me and to all men: Above all I thank God for God!

BOY SCOUTS ARE PREPARED

Military training has no place in the program of the Boy Scouts of America. There was a day, before the aims and methods of Scouting were well known, when the public suspected that the trim khaki uniforms of this new organization betrayed a warlike nature. The record of the World War rectified that mistake. The youngsters were active in helping win the struggle, but it was not as an auxiliary of the Army or Navy. Rather, the Boy Scouts worked at home, where they sold millions of dollars worth of Liberty Bonds, gathered tons of fruit pits for gas masks, and located thousands of walnut trees for the aircraft industry. Their record was a brilliant one.

With the nation focusing its attention on defense, and with the government launching the greatest preparedness program in history, it is significant that the Boy Scouts are also working on their own emergency training plank. It calls for intensified practice in the activities for which Scouting is already best known.

Boys must be ready for any form of Service, whether it be a house-to-house canvass or sudden mobilization to meet a natural disaster. Troops must be up to their full strength of 32 Scouts each and many new Troops must be organized. Equipment—signal flags, hatchets, ropes, uniforms and first aid kits—must be procured and paid for by the boys themselves. Adult volunteer leaders have to be found and trained.

The result is profitable to the community. Boy Scout training has its greatest scope in our everyday life, when boys are formed into useful citizens, taught to care for themselves, and trained for all-round service to the nation. In times of emergency the value of this preparation becomes apparent.

RANDAL IRWIN, pres. Lockheed Aircraft Corp — "Within a few months the shortage of labor will be so acute nationally it may be necessary to take more and more women into service to meet production demands."

HANS LACHMANN-MOSSE, who lost German newspaper chain and 50 magazines when he fled Nazi persecution to settle in California — "It wasn't hard to sacrifice. Losing a business you've given a lifetime to building is nothing compared to losing freedom."

NEW AIRCRAFT PLANT AT LONG BEACH TO BE CAMOUFLAGED

Highly significant is the announcement that the Douglas Aircraft Company's new plant at Long Beach will embody the lessons Europe has learned the hard way—with camouflaged landscape, "decentralization" of vital units, bomb shelters for employees and blackout facilities.

While at the moment an aerial attack upon these United States appears extremely remote, the California aircraft industry is preparing for any eventuality — no matter how remote.

MANGANESE DEPOSITS BEING CHECKED FOR DEFENSE USE

SAN FRANCISCO — Development of manganese mining in California appeared a possibility today as the U. S. Bureau of Mines checked mineral deposits as part of the national defense program.

DE SOTO COINS
NEW PHRASE
IN "FLUID DRIVE"

A new phrase is coming into use in automobile circles since the showing of the new 1941 De Soto. "The new phrase is Fluid Drive with simplimatic transmission," explains Clarence Crane, Niles De Soto-Plymouth dealer, "and it was coined to describe the sensational smooth drive at all speeds and the simple and automatic shifting of gears designed by De Soto engineers."

"To start from a standstill with this revolutionary development, it is necessary only to put the lever in the position which is called high range and step on the gas. In acceleration gear the response is instant, giving fast getaway."

"Innumerable automatic shifts back and forth will be made during the course of a day's driving without once touching the shifter lever."

"In reality Fluid Drive with simplimatic transmission is simplicity itself and its ease of operation and easing up of driving strain are winning it more and more glowing reports by drivers."

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Lippi, Mrs. Mary Re, Mr. and Mrs. John Re, Barbara, Juliet, and John Re, and Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Fisicaro and sons, Angelo, Jr., James, and Robert, spent Thanksgiving Day as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Brunelli and family here.

MEETING OF FARM
CENTER BRINGS OUT
RECORD ATTENDANCE

CENTERVILLE — A record attendance of more than 225 marked the annual dinner meeting of the Eden-Washington Farm Center at Washington Union High School Tuesday night. Joe Shinn, Jr., was master of ceremonies and the speaker of the evening was Prof. B. H. Crocheron, director of the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of California. The following officers were installed by A. J. Sturtevant, director of Region No. 5, of the California State Farm Bureau Federation: James Nunes of Centerville, president; Jeryl Fry of Mt. Eden, vice-president and Neil MacArthur of Irvington, secretary-treasurer.

The 4-H Clubs under the direction of Pete Meyers, assistant farm adviser, presented a citizenship program in which two new citizens were honored, Jeanette Houston of Pleasanton and Viola Couble of Valle Vista. Phyllis Owen of Niles gave a guitar and vocal solo and music was furnished by Fred Mitte's haywire orchestra.

For the first time members of the Farm Home Departments were also guests and furnished the salad course. Meat was furnished by the Farm Bureau of Alameda County.

Among those introduced were O. C. Brown, new agricultural teacher at the local high school and James Elsea, his assistant, Fred Duffie of Niles, new agricultural commissioner; J. C. Shinn, Sr., president of the local center 20 years ago; Farm Adviser T. O. Morrison; Maryetta B. Holman county farm home demonstration agent and numerous others.

Prof. Crocheron pointed out that the Farm Bureau differed from other farmers' clubs in that education was its foundation. Its program is based on science, he said and when the forces of science and the forces of agriculture join it means progress for all the people. He traced the history of the Farm Bureau started in West Virginia a quarter of a century ago.

FARMERS TO FLOCK TO FRESNO FOR ANNUAL CONVENTION

STOCKTON — Efforts to outlaw the secondary boycott in California will definitely be the theme of the sixth annual convention of the Associated Farmers, to be held in Fresno, December 2 and 3, Harold Angier, of Lodi, state secretary announced today.

Angier presided over informal sessions of northern California farm leaders here, where pre-convention plans were laid to bring the matter of the recent supreme court ruling on the secondary boycott in the Howard Automobile case to the floor of the convention for open discussion.

The Fresno convention is expected to draw the largest number of farmers ever registered at a farm meeting. San Joaquin County is sending a special train to the convention, local farm leaders reported, and Contra Costa County leaders, also present, reported several cars would carry farmers from that area in addition to a caravan of cars.

Associated Farmers officials estimated that the attendance record set in the convention meeting at Stockton last year of 5000 would almost be doubled this year.

TRESPASSING HUNTERS WILL BE PROSECUTED
DEPUTY ATTORNEY WARNS

CENTERVILLE — A warning that trespassers who hunt without permission of property owners and without hunting licenses may be fined $500 or sentenced to six months in jail was issued by Deputy District Attorney Joe Schenone at the Centerville Justice Court Friday.

Upon complaint of Ted Silveria, manager of the Irvington Gun Club near the old Warm Springs Landing that San Jose hunters were trespassing, two boys, aged 17 and 18 years of age, appeared for a citation but Silveria did not sign a complaint against them due to their youth. However, there will be no second excuse, warned Schenone and anyone caught hunting without permission in the future will be prosecuted. It is unfair to those who pay to keep up a club for outsiders to hunt on private property, he pointed out.

PUBLIC URGED TO BUY XMAS
SEALS LIBERALLY

Stating that the work of the Alameda County Tuberculosis and Health Association is an outstanding contribution to the general health and welfare of the entire county Dr. Chesley Bush, medical director of the Arroyo Sanitarium in Livermore, today urged everyone to join the fight against tuberculosis by purchasing and using Christmas Seals.

The 1940 Christmas Seal sale was launched this week throughout Alameda county to raise funds for continuation of the fight to eradicate tuberculosis.

Stressing the importance of the work in the field of preventing tuberculosis and making possible early discovery of cases of this disease Dr. Bush said, "if we can locate tuberculosis early we can usually cure or arrest it. Undetected, a single case of the disease may infect many people and cause much unnecessary suffering."

In Washington this week President Roosevelt called upon the American people to make provision for fighting tuberculosis in the interests of national defense.

The President said, "from now until Christmas Day we, as individuals, by generous purchase of Christmas Seals, can do our part to help the tuberculosis associations free us from the deadly menace of this communicable disease. We know from past experience that our dollars will be well spent in behalf of the public good."
